

Hawaii Deposit Beverage Container Program

Implementation Timeline

Present
Glass distributors pay an Advance Disposal Fee (ADF) of 1.5¢ per container for all glass containers .
July 1, 2002
Deadline for deposit beverage distributors to register with the State.
October 1, 2002
Distributors begin paying the deposit beverage container fee of .5¢
October 1, 2004
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Glass ADF is 1.5¢ cent per container for all non-beverage glass containers.• Glass beverage containers move out of the ADF Program and move into the Beverage Container Deposit Program.• Deposit beverage container fee raised to 1¢ per container for all glass, plastic, and aluminum deposit beverage containers.
January 1, 2005
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Administrative rules promulgated.• 5¢ refundable deposit will be charged with container fee.• Deposit beverage containers must be labeled with 5¢ redemption value.• Deposit beverage containers redeemable for 5¢ deposit.
Deposit Beverage Container recovery rate above 70%
The container fee is raised to 1.5¢

For more information contact:
Department of Health
Solid and Hazardous Waste Branch
Phone: (808) 586-4226